

NCF
Presents
1st Cooperative
DIGITAL
CONCLAVE 2024
in association with Info Developers

Are you ready to digitize your workplace?

14th - 15th March 2024 Hotel Yak & Yeti, Kathmandu

Bio-note

Madhab Prasad Poudyal is currently working as a Chief Executive Officer of One of the largest and leading credit union having 55000 members and 4000 million assets named by VYCCU Saving and Credit Co-operatives Ltd., Nepal. He manages VYCCU since 2002. From the beginning he work to break own history of achievement with in credit union movement of Nepal. He is an experienced CEO of credit union movement. He was awarded as a “Best Manager” for the first time in Nepal by Nepal Federation of Saving & Credit Cooperative union (NEFSCUN). He has got a cooperative leadership training in change management by ICA, He is expert of risk management, member relation and internal control, strategy development and growth, product design, development, quality control and improvement, decision making, building, policy making, innovation and change management within credit union movement of Nepal. He has a different experiences to promote different types of cooperative like education, information and communication, consumer etc. He make best practice of ACCESS within VYCCU and enlighten Nepleae credit union movement.

Umesh Raghubanshi, the CEO of InfoDevelopers, proudly brings over 21 years of ICT expertise, guiding the company to being one of the top Tech Companies in Nepal. As both CEO and BOD, his leadership shapes tech solutions for Cooperatives, INGOs, NGOs, governmental bodies, and various fintech sectors. With a clear vision, he leads the digital transformation of organizations, reshaping Nepal’s technological landscape. Additionally, he is also serving as a prominent figure in various Social Organizations furthering his impact beyond the tech sector. His innovative initiatives have notably enriched banking experiences, cementing his legacy of forward-thinking contributions to Nepal’s fintech industry.

Bijay Limbu Senihang has extensive work experience in the IT field. Bijay began their career in 2013 as an Information Security Consultant for Entrust Solution. In 2014, they took on the role of Lecturer at Madan Bhandari Memorial College, as well as IT Security Trainer at Laba Nepal. From 2015 to 2019, they worked at Rigo Technology as Chief Technology Officer, and then at Vairav Technology as Chief Executive Officer. During their time at Entrust Solution, they were responsible for web application pentesting, mobile application pentesting, security audit and IT security consultancy. At Laba Nepal, they taught web application security testing and CEH courses to IT staff of Nepal Army, World Vision, and Log Point.

Sanjib Subba

Chair

Fintech Alliance Nepal

Chair

UNDP-SDG

Green Finance Sub-platform

Fintech by Profession - Farmer by passion

Nepal based #FinancialInclusion enthusiast.

He is passionate about #Fintech #PaymentSystems #FinancialInclusion #GreenFinance #DigitalFinancialService #Trekking #Canyoning as well as #EntrepreneurshipDevelopment and base level #Skill development for rural Nepal.

In his role as CEO of leading Fintech Sanjib is driving card-based payments in Nepal through multi-bank EFT switch www.neps.com.np

Chair of Fintech Alliance Nepal - an association of Fintech companies in Nepal.

Chair of UNDP SDG Green Finance sub-platform. The platform has published first formal position paper in Green Finance in Nepali context.

Sanjib is into farming as well where he is growing 400 different fruit trees, 400 plants of Sezuwan Peppers (Timmur) and Turmeric - without any chemical fertilizers and pesticides.

As soon as I get off from work or farm I hit the trails of Nepal for trekking, canyoning and conduct Financial Literacy including Digital Financial Literacy in rural/remote Nepal.

My trekking adventure includes Langtang (3850 mtr), Shermathang, Annapurna Base Camp (4130 mtr), Ghore Pani, Mardi (4500 mtr) Everest Base Camp (5207 mtr GorakShep) amongst others.

Dr. Gunakar Bhatta is a macroeconomic researcher of the developing economy, with more than decadal experience in the middle and lower-level management of the central bank of Nepal. Dr Bhatta has participated in numerous national and international policy discussion forums in relation to capacity development in macroeconomics.

Dr Bhatta is a PhD graduate in macroeconomics from Australia and Masters of Public Policy graduate from Japan. The research interests include monetary policy transmission, exchange rate regimes, and financial sector reforms.